What would you do if you were told you had cancer? What would you do if you were told you had cancer for the sixth time? Not very many people would be able to answer the latter and those who could, would have wonderful things to say. The message of this book is simple. A person cannot be completely well unless they have a healthy body, mind and spirit. Moreover, part of being in this state of wellness comes from appreciating little things like the many shades of green around us
